

San Felipe de Neri

P-371

ALTAR OF SAN FELIPE DE NERI CHURCH

Old Albuquerque, New Mexico

San Felipe de Neri was built in the early 1700's to serve the spiritual needs of the new Villa of Albuquerque which was founded in 1706 and named for the Duke of Albuquerque and the King of Spain

Petley

HELP GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

HELP THE HANDICAPPED

Published by Petley Studios, Box 3218, Albuquerque, New Mexico

Dear Alice, this is a

Mrs Alice Gould
82 Baxter St.
Providence
Rhode Island

Color photo by Geo. W. Thompson

than R.C. with a real warm sun. Pretty quiet.

It's a beautiful old church with a beautiful altar. I'm up there to spend Thanksgiving with Father & family. I so beautiful here. I'll be down on the top of the mountain. I'll be down not come down here in the valley. A little more